

1. Label the parts of the plant and match them to its function.

Stem

Roots

Leave

Flower

- a) They absorb water and minerals from the soil.
- b) It supports the plant and transports water and mineral to the leaves.
- c) It is the reproductive organ of the plant. It produces fruit.
- d) It uses air and sunlight to make its own food.

2. Classify the description.

Grasses	Bushes	Trees

are thin and flexible.
have a thick, hard stem.
have branches near the ground.

can live for hundreds of years.
do not live a long time.
do not grow very tall.

are taller than grasses.
are the tallest plants.
have a trunk.